

THE EPIC STORY OF TASMANIAN
ROCK CLIMBING

ADVENTURES AT THE EDGE OF THE WORLD

tells the epic story of Tasmanian rock climbing from 1914 to the present day. The pioneers recount their adventures in their own words through a series of compelling short stories. The land that their words evoke is brought to life in many stunning photographs, making this an inspiring celebration of Tasmania's climbing history.

Now available at all good bookstore and online at climbtasmania.com.au

A ROCK CLIMBING GUIDE

TO 1,200 ROUTES AT TASSIE'S 35 BEST CRAGS
The ultimate guide for visitors. A concise guide for locals.

FEATURING

- | | | |
|-----------------|-----------------|------------------|
| Adamsfield | Federation Peak | North Esk |
| Africa | Flinders Island | North Sister |
| Bare Rock | Frenchmans Cap | Organ Pipes |
| Ben Lomond | Freycinet | Pavement Bluff |
| Blackwood Rocks | Hillwood | Rocky Cape |
| Cape Raoul | Mt Blackwood | Sand River |
| Cataract Gorge | Mt Brown | Sisters Beach |
| Cloudy Bay | Mt Geryon | South Esk |
| Cluan Tiers | Mt Roland | South Sister |
| Cradle Mountain | | Stacks Bluff |
| Devils Gullet | | The Moai |
| | | The Acropolis |
| | | Totem Pole |
| | | Township Creek |
| | | Tyndall Range |
| | | West Coast Crags |

CLIMB TASMANIA

Gerry Narkowicz

CLIMB TASMANIA

SELECTED BEST CLIMBS

Gerry Narkowicz

ABOUT THE EDITOR
Gerry Narkowicz

Gerry began rock climbing in 1980 as a 16-year old, through the Elizabeth College Climbing Club in Hobart. Since then, his passion has been new route development and cliff discovery, mostly in Northern Tasmania where he has established over 900 new climbs.

As an outdoor education teacher he has introduced many students to rock climbing and is also the author of six guidebooks to Tasmanian crags.

